The regulatory authorities are the European Central Bank (ECB) (Sonnemannstrasse 22, 60314 Frankfurt am Main, Germany) and the German Federal Financial Supervisory Authority - Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht („BaFin“, Graurheindorfer Str. 108, 53117 Bonn, Németország, www.bafin.de). The National Bank of Hungary (1054 Budapest, Szabadság tér 8-9, Hungary, Internet: www.felugyelet.mnb.hu) also performs certain supervisory rights especially in the area of payment services, market surveillance and investment services.

Exercising our German banking and investment services licence in Hungary has been acknowledged by the Hungarian Financial Supervisory Authority in its resolution dated on 02.03.2011 under Nr. 11932-6/2011.

The governing language for our business relationship is Hungarian. You can also communicate with us in English or German.

Please place orders for transactions in financial instruments at our office in Budapest, by telephone, facsimile or – subject to special agreement between us – via phone or in electronic form.

Deposits and investments with Deutsche Bank AG Hungary Branch are subject to the German compensation scheme of Entschädigungseinrichtung Deutscher Banken GmbH (EdB), the statutory compensation scheme of German commercial banks for deposits and investments, as well as to the Deposit Protection Fund of the Association of German Banks (Statut des Einlagensicherungsfonds des Bundesverbands deutscher Banken e.V.). For details about the protection provided by these compensation schemes, please consult Section 21 of our General Business Conditions and Section 24 of our Business Conditions of Investment Services and Ancillary Services, as well as our homepage.
